Outwood Academy Acklam
Head of Humanities
(Ideally a geography specialist but would consider other specialisms)
L5-L9

Required to start September 2017

Outwood Grange Academies Trust provides a high quality learning and cultural environment that inspires and motivates children. Leadership development, succession planning and capacity building are also major priorities for the Trust.

We are seeking to appoint an energetic and inspirational classroom practitioner who can lead humanities.

This is a fantastic opportunity for a well qualified, driven professional who is enthusiastic, motivated and really wants to make a difference to the lives of young people. Our vision is ‘Students First’ and you will be joining a strong team of professionals working to this sole aim.

You will be well supported by an experienced team as you work to raise attainment levels and offer an engaging curriculum experience.

Outwood Grange Academies Trust provides a high quality learning and cultural environment that inspires and motivates children. Leadership development, succession planning and capacity building are also major priorities for the Trust.

Being part of the Outwood Family of Schools means that you are guaranteed a minimum of two hours CPD per week, as well as further comprehensive programmes of professional development provided through the Outwood Institute of Education - a nationally recognised Teaching School. Additionally there are opportunities for staff to work and progress across several academies, if desired.

To apply online please visit www.outwood.com

For queries please contact our HR Department by telephone: 01642 818200 or email: c.taylor@acklam.outwood.com

Closing date: 8 May 2017 at noon.

The Outwood Grange Academies Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. All appointments will be subject to a satisfactory DBS check.